

The Declaration of Khmer Love Khmer Party

By: Mr. Keo Hienh (John)

A – INTERNAL POLICY

Prior to the inception of this Declaration, I first would like to pay my respect to His Venerable, my respect to all members of ministers and offices of His Excellency, to the National Guess of Honor, International Guess of Honor, members of KLKP, and finally to all of our compatriots who are my beloved people of Cambodia.

As a Chairman and a member of Board of Directors of Khmer Love Khmer Party, I would like to express my most gratitude to all of his Venerable, His Excellencies and all guesses of honor; since our goal is to reach that one destiny; is to find a true independence for our nation thus allowing many people from all back ground to establish a political party known as Khmer Love Khmer Party.

This political party has established by Cambodian people for Cambodian people and it is belong to the people of Cambodia. This party believes in democracy which utilizing rule of law to maintain social structures based on a motto "No one above the law" as our spear to win the heart of the people. This party believes people are the master of their nation or country. This party will bring new beginning, new changes, new generation a generation that obey rule of law and social orders. This party believes and dedicate their time and effort to fulfill the obligations to which can be based on rule of law and social orders. This party will utilize their utmost ability to lead Cambodia into a new beginning a beginning that can only be fulfilled by Cambodian citizens and no one else.

KLKP will promise and made a vow to the people of Cambodia that power will be the last thing on their agenda. KLKP believes power is in the hand of the people and not in some group of the elites.

KLKP will announce to the people of Cambodia that KLKP will commit and protect the Constitution of Cambodia, laws pertaining to the political party, regulations that mandate the rules of internal affairs, and the liberal democracy to which it is based upon the plurality of politics. In addition, KLKP will dedicate all of their effort to protect human rights that is the foundation of all creation in the principle of democracy. Furthermore, KLKP will stand against those who are a terrorist to Cambodia and the International Community; will stand against those who want to create turmoil and social instability within Cambodia.

Due to our past corrupted leaders from many generations and their activities that divided into ruling classes of our social fabric of society, hence, it led to our deteriorating of our nation from one generation to the next. Our people became unorganized, our objectives are not prioritized and thus the entire nation of Cambodia became a broken and dissolute nation. And because of these unacceptable behaviors that laid and embedded within the fabric of society of our nation, Cambodian did not see eye to eye thus it created an atmosphere that fills with hatred toward one another, hence, the killing begins. Among the people there is no trust, among the parties there are no unity and as a nation there is no strength. If we continue on this course, Cambodia and its people could possible be vanished just like it did to Champa.

And because of this reason and this reason only it led us to believe that new political party must be established for the sake of our nation. Hence, the inception of Khmer Love Khmer Party is born. It is true that we cannot change what has happened in the past, but surely we can change the present and prepare for the future. KLKP strongly believes with the right management and directions, Cambodia will have a new beginning. Under new leadership of Khmer Love Khmer Party Cambodian shall possess many birth rights that considered as validness and humanism. KLKP also believes that all Cambodian should be the master of their own nation and have accessibility to the government and without being coerced to do things against their wills. In addition, Cambodian must not become enslave by its own government.

KLKP primary goal is to find solutions for the people of Cambodia by ways of debating and arguing over certain rights and power that must be placed in the hands of people. To achieve these greatest tasks, KLKP must first render all its decisions and bend its knees to the people of Cambodia and ask for the entire nation to rethink of what the people want to achieve as a whole nation and not just from a group perspective. We have to combat these problems together in order to find end results. Problems such as corruptions, poverty, domestic violence, land reform, referendums, independent reviews and immigration issues. These problems must be dealt with non-violence approach. Furthermore, we must encourage people to be more responsible for their own actions while they are living among the society that respects rule of law.

The nation's destiny lay within the hands of the people. If the people want new beginning and new changes they must learn to recognize their rights as citizen of Cambodia and not expect others to teach them what those rights are. KLKP encourages people of Cambodia to come forward and ask questions to their respectable representatives throughout the nation. And it is the responsibility of these public officials that must bear the responsibility to make such responses accordingly. The nation of Cambodia and its power belong to the people of Cambodia and it is the discretion of the people to say and do what are best for the country and its national interests.

Henceforth, the people of Cambodia have the rights to vote and veto anyone who deem not fit to rule the country. The people of Cambodia must vote with great dignity and must commit themselves to pick the right candidate for the job. The people of Cambodia must perpetually think of their vote as the life of their own.

Should they choose or make the wrong choice the country itself could be placed in great danger or in harm's way. That is why it is necessary for the people of Cambodia to study each candidate with cautious thought process so they don't have to confront any unforeseen future that is not acceptable as they have come to encountered.

Voting or electing Khmer Love Khmer Party meaning the people are voting for themselves. It also means they are voting to eliminate corruptions, to reduce poverty, to combat class divisions, to reform land ownership, unemployment etc. In addition, they are voting to make changes and finding new beginning for the purpose of all mankind.
